SENIOR COMMUNITY HEALTH & ENGAGEMENT OFFICER
Full-Time 1.0 FTE

Gambler's Help Southern (GHS) has been a program of Connect Health & Community since 1995. It offers a range of confidential, free services aimed at preventing or reducing the negative impacts of gambling on individuals, families and the community.

The Senior Community and Health Engagement Officer is a vital part of the GHS team and will deliver high quality, contemporary community engagement activities both across the Southern Metropolitan region and in a designated sub-catchment.

Some of the key responsibilities in this role, will include:

- Support and develop initiatives that promote healthy and informed gambling attitudes and behaviour in the community
- Design, implement and evaluate prevention initiatives that reach across the spectrum of prevention
- Design, implement and deliver interventions that build capacity of services in other sectors to detect and respond to gambling related harm in at risk population groups.
- Improve community capacity to prevent and minimise adverse impacts of gambling through partnership interventions within community development and health promotion frameworks

To be successful in the role you will require:

- Qualifications in a relevant field – Community Development, Health promotion, Nursing, Education, or Marketing
- Minimum of 6 years' experience in a related field or position
- Knowledge of and, demonstrated ability to use, community engagement techniques
- Excellent organisational skills, including the ability to manage all aspects of project planning delivery and reporting across multiple initiatives
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively, with limited direction

Salary and conditions as per Community Health Centre (Stand Alone Services) Social and Community Services Employees Multi Enterprise Agreement 2017 -2020.

A condition of employment is providing a current Police Check and Working with Children's Check. If you do not already hold these documents you will need to agree to apply for them.
